Generation of financial statements is obligatory by virtue of commercial and/or tax regulations or required under corporate law. The annual financial statements primarily serve to provide exact information about the assets and liabilities, financial position, profit or loss, rating by the financing banks, and the taxation of the company. Our vast reservoir of experts consisting of auditors and tax advisors with long-standing experience is the guarantee of success that ensures that existing raw data for the compilation be utilized towards optimization in the preparation of the financial statements, thereby without violating the extensive regulations to be complied with.

The scope of our services includes, in particular:

- Preparation of commercial and tax balance sheets as well as balance sheets using International Accounting Standards (IAS/IFRS) for companies of different legal forms (corporations, partnerships, sole proprietorships, associations ...) with and without plausibility assessments or comprehensive assessments in accordance with professional standards
- Generation of opening and interim balance sheets and dissolution balance sheets
- Preparation of annexes to the year-end financial statements and, if need be, any assistance in the preparation of the statement of affairs
- Preparation of consolidated financial statements
- Preparation of compilation reports in accordance with individual requirements
- For self-filing clients: fixed asset accounting and preliminary preparation for financial statements (e.g. account reconciliations)
- Generation of revenue surplus calculations in compliance with § 4, para. 3 Income Tax Act
- Preparation and submission of the so-called "E-Tax Balance Sheet," also for the electronic Federal Gazette
